*“SANTA FE TOUR”
THE CITY DIFFERENT*

Friday, 26 June, 9:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Meet in front of the Albuquerque Convention Center (Symposium Venue).

Enjoy a cultural and artistic tour of Santa Fe, a unique and enchanting experience. We start with a drive to Santa Fe along the “Turquoise Trail”, stopping to shop in the historic mining village of Madrid, New Mexico, known for its quality arts and crafts.

We will arrive at the City Different via the “Santa Fe Trail”, and stop to view the lifesize bronze diorama “Santa Fe Passage”.

We will have a walking tour of historic Santa Fe, the oldest capital city in the United States. We'll see the San Miguel Mission, the oldest church in America, (1610), and the French Romanesque styled Chapel of Loretto with the “Miraculous Spiral Staircase”.

After lunch, you will have time to shop and enjoy the plaza area, perhaps taking time to see the exquisite Georgia O’Keeffe or Institute of American Indian Arts Museums. The Palace of the Governors features Native American artists from each of the 19 Pueblos of New Mexico.

$50.00 per person: Includes transportation, guide, bottled water, entry fee to the Loretto and San Miguel Mission guests will have lunch on their own
