

Press Release – 25 May, 2010

The American Association of Woodturners and The Furniture Society are offering a special promotion to introduce members to the each other's organization.

If you are going to the AAW Symposium in Hartford (June 18-20, 2010) - you qualify for a $200 discount on the $250 one day pass rate to attend the Furniture Society Conference in Boston on June 17th.

If you are attending the FS2010:Fusions Conference in Boston at MIT (June 17-19, 2010) - you qualify for a $95 discount on the $145 one day pass rate to attend the AAW Symposium in Hartford on June 20th.

This special $50 day rate makes it easy to get a glimpse of the spectacular work coming from the members of these two organizations.

To get your pass: Go to the registration desk in either Hartford or at MIT, and show proof that you have registered for the other conference or symposium (credit card slip, registrations badge, email confirmation from the AAW or FS, etc), and you will be given a single day pass for $50. It's simple, it's easy – we look forward to having you at our conference and symposium.
